“Taste of the Race” Provides Gastronomic Tour of Downtown Sebring

SEBRING, Fla. (Feb. 26, 2010) – The Greater Sebring Chamber of Commerce and Downtown Sebring will host the “Taste of the Race” on Thursday, March 18 from 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Each year, nearly 2,000 people help kick off the annual 12 Hours of Sebring with this gastronomic tour of Downtown Sebring. The historic sports cars will arrive downtown from the track via police escort around 11:00 a.m. Vendors will be on site with food, beverages and fun activities.

“This is a fun way to see antique race cars and set the tone for our town’s annual endurance race,” said Greg Harris, President/CEO of the Greater Sebring Chamber of Commerce. “You won’t want to miss this annual event that brings locals, tourists and race fans together for delicious food and a really great time.”

Several roads in the Downtown Sebring area will be closed on Friday, March 12 from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. for this event.

For more information about the Taste of the Race or to inquire about vendor opportunities, contact the Greater Sebring Chamber of Commerce at (863) 385-8448.
